ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE.

Malcolm Duncan and Anna Q. Nilsgon in the five part Kleine photodrama
The Scarlet Road is the feature at the Bread theatre today. This is a very romantic tale of a young man who dissipated quickly, in fast living, the fortune left him by his father, and contains man; very artistic settings and interesting scenes, including a Broadway cabaret on New Year's eve, which is one of the most realistic reproductions of Broadway life ever productions of Broadway life ever made for the screen.

The Massacre, a two reel drama, and The Massacre, a two reel drama, and Hold Fast, one reel comedy, featuring Harry Watson, completes the bill for

For Friday and Saturday the Breed will present the exquisite little star, Viola Dana, in The Flower of No Man's Viola Dana, in The Flower of two Stan's Land, a Metro wonderplay of supreme beauty and sublime heart interest, and brings into a vivid contrast the arid wastes of the Great American desert, with the simplicity of far western ways, and the sophisticated, complex existence of boxholders of the "diamond horsesine" at the Metropolitan opera house.

portrayal of emotion, and as The Flower of No Man's Land she has ev-ery opportunity to display this power, for fate plays strange pranks with the confiding, simple child of the mining camp. But this little star's power to show the humorous side of life is just as great, and there are many scenes which will keep the audience in an up-

DAVIS THEATRE.

New Show Today-Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville and Triangle Plays-Charlie Chaplin in His Latest Com-

For the last half of this week the management of the Davis promise one of the finest all round bills of the scanon. The headline attraction will be E. Merian's troupe of 25 wonderful pantomimic military pantomime. The Territorials Quartered—a screamingly funny incident of life among the quadruped soldiers of Poodleville. There is the call to arms, the hasty donning of uniforms and arms, the sentries on duty, a military drill, the visit of canine wives and sweethearts to tearfully bid the soldiers farewell, and many other things. The other vaudeville act is Alvin and Williams, a clever team of entertainers who have a nifty singing offering called Bits from Singland. In the photoplays the visit of canine wives and sweethearts famous comedian, who has made millions of people laugh. But hearty as has been the laughter he has created Methodist church at 4.30 p. m. RAYMO in the past, it is nothing to that he makes in this newest farce. One A. M., two recis of solid laughter that will go on record as the comedian's master effort. The story is woven around a visit of Charlie to a friend who is a naturalist, his home filled with all more of strong and the comedian's master of strong and the strong is some and the strong course of the naturalist, his home filled with all sorts of stuffed animals and birds. Charlie goes out to a party, a stag affair, which he leaves after midnight in a happy condition, having imbibed freely of the wine that is red. Arriving at his friend's house, he finds his friend asleep too soundly to be wakened, and the visitor has no key. He manages after many laughable mishaps to get in, and then has innumerable funny experiences. One A. M. promises to be the big laughing event status of the ane.

Essex.—Mrs. Sarah Lay, one of the oldest persons in town, will celebrate the 91st anniversary of her birth Friday, Aug. 25. Mrs. Lay has been a helptes invalid for ten years, being Sparrow.

Witton.—Fulton's American band of Waterbury will give a concert at the residence of George E. Boyd in Witton.

promises to be the big laughing event of the year.

The chief dramatic effering of the bill will be Dorothy Gish in the stirring five part Triangle Iranan, The Little School Ma'am, the story of a charming southern girl forced by circumstances to correct the control of the proceeds to be given for the purchase of children's books in the Wilton library.

Greenwich.—John H. Tyson, a young millionaire of Riverdale, is the control of the purchase of the proceeds to be given for the purchase of children's books in the Wilton library. cumstances to earn her living teaching the district school in a little New England village until lealousy strs the scandal mongers against her and drives her out. Eventually a strong, earless youth fights the girl's battle Tyson by an aunt be applied to the nd compels a righting of the injustice debt. Mack Swain, the irresistible farceur in Madcap Ambrose, an uproariously funny two part Keystone comedy, will complete the show.

Concert at St. Mary's. The following programme arranged by John M. Swahn, director, will be given by Tubbs' band on the opening night of the St. Mary's lawn fete: March, First Infantry, Koenia
